the busboy can't touch liquor glasses, even if they are empty. So this would allow him to remove those empty liquor glasses from the table and the other one was the Fair Grounds thing, allowing the Fair Manager or the Fair Board to have a liquor license. And as I understand all these were unopposed in committee and they are just four consolidated things to be taken care of at the same time we are eliminating the other parts of the bill. The amendment eliminates all that.

PRESIDENT: Have you made a request for unanimous consent to unbracket?

SENATOR DECAMP: Yes, and then the next one would be to return it for that purpose.

PRESIDENT: Is there an objection? I see none. Oh, there is an objection. Would you make a motion of that? Then you move to unbracket, Senator DeCamp?

SENATOR DECAMP: I'll make a motion then.

PRESIDENT: Then you are moving to unbracket 204? Alright. Anyone wish to be heard on that matter? That's the proposition. Record your vote. Please vote. Please vote. Record. Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, call the House.

PRESIDENT: The question then is shall the House go under call? Record your votes on that proposition.

CLERK: He wants to unbracket 204. Senator Syas voting aye. Oops, ~~we are~~nt under call yet George.

PRESIDENT: Record.

CLERK: Alright, 17 ayes, 3 nays.

PRESIDENT: We are under call, please return to your desks and record your presence.

CLERK: Senator Syas voting aye. Senator Kelly voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Senator Mills voting aye.

CLERK: Senator Savage voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Mills.

CLERK: Senator Mills voting aye. Senator Moylan voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp.

CLERK: Senator Carsten voting aye.

SENATOR DECAMP: I move the call be raised.

PRESIDENT: All in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. The call is raised. Report the vote.
